

COX NOMINATED ON 44th BALLOT

OHIO'S POPULAR GOVERNOR CHOSEN TO LEAD DEMOCRACY'S FORLORN HOPES

Victory Comes at 1:45 This Morning After an All Day Battle of Ballots

Anti-Administration Forces Win the Nominee After Being Defeated in the Platform

HUGH BAILLIE
(Staff Correspondent United Press)
San Francisco, July 6—Governor James Middleton Cox of Ohio was nominated as democratic candidate for President of the United States at 1:45 this morning.

The nomination came during the 44th roll call. Samuel B. Amidon, Kansas national committeeman and a McAdoo leader, seeing the tide sweeping toward Cox moved that rules be suspended and he be declared the unanimous choice of the party.

And scenes of tumult with hundreds of delegates cheering and yelling the motion was carried by thundering shouts of "Ayes."

The finish came after the convention had been in session except for a brief dinner recess, since shortly before 10 a. m. yesterday.

The deadlock was broken after the 25th ballot when Attorney General Palmer withdrew and released his delegates.

Governor Cox got most of the votes Palmer released, and as balloting progressed he gained steadily while McAdoo's strength declined correspondingly.

The 44th ballot was still in progress when the end came. The count stood: Cox 699½, McAdoo 270. From 728 to 731 votes, depending upon the total number cast, were required to nominate. McAdoo had passed and delegates were caucusing, evidently preparing to throw the whole vote to Cox.

Colorado through its chairman was in the act of changing vote and cast it solidly for Cox when Amidon appeared on the rostrum.

The instant he put his motion to the convention, Chairman Robinson's voice could scarcely be heard as he asked the question. The yells with which it was carried nearly lifted the roof.

The convention meets at noon today to nominate a vice presidential candidate, wind up the business and adjourn.

Cox Will Accept

Dayton, Ohio, June 6—Governor James Middleton Cox, who was nominated as candidate for President at the democratic convention today, said he would accept the honor.

He was at the wire all day and night and said he was too tired to make a formal statement now. He said this statement would be made later in the day when he was in proper condition mentally and physically to compose the important message.

HOW COX RECEIVED THE NEWS OF NOMINATION

(By United Press)

Dayton, Ohio, July 6—Governor James M. Cox was at his newspaper publishing plant when he received word that he had been nominated President of the United States by the delegates to the national convention at San Francisco. The word came in the form of a telegraphic flash at 4:40 a. m.

The governor was in his small office where he had been since 11:20 p. m. Monday.

When he received the report of the 42d ballot Governor Cox made the first statement since balloting started Friday.

"Boys, its all over and I have won," he said. "I think I will take a smoke now." But before he could light a pipe he was interrupted by shouts from telegraph operators before the 44th ballot was finished.

"Cox is nominated," they cried.

A crowd of men who had been waiting swung forward grabbed Cox and triumphantly hoisted him to their shoulders. The Governor's pipe rolled on the desk unlighted. Then Cox crowded to the front office where Mrs. Cox had been waiting all night. Mrs. Cox seized her husband, kissed him with tears in her eyes.

Governor Cox relaxed from the strain and tears filled his eyes.

Mrs. E. A. Dwyer, Mrs. Elmer Parker, both of Dayton, with Miss Jane Root and Elmer West, both of Chicago, who had been with Mrs. Cox through the trying ordeal all night all kissed the governor and then cried.

The first extra was printed in Cox's plant and the first copy handed to the governor.

Cox excused himself from the crowd and went to the composing room and shook hands with all the employees.

Then he went to the home of his life long friend and advisor John McMahon, one of the oldest attorneys of the Ohio bar.

The aged man appeared in his nightgown and slippers.

"Jimmy" was all that he could say to the Governor. He took him in his arms and kissed him.

"I wanted to be the first to bring the news in remembrance of all that you have done for me," he said.

After the Governor had gone to his home this morning for a brief rest he went alone to the Woodlawn cemetery, and at the grave of his mother prayed for half an hour. The Governor's mother was at the New Year's reception given by President Grover Cleveland at the White House January 1, 1895. At that time she said to Cleveland:

"I have a son at home who will be here where you are some day."

The Governor related the story for the first time Tuesday. Among his intimate friends he is known as a "regular fellow." He likes golf, hunting, fishing and work. He is fond of dogs. He also appreciates a good story.

Cox is robust, weighs 145. He was born on a farm near Jacksonburg, Ohio. When he was young he worked on the farm and attended school near his home. He was developed in the hard school of experience. While young he started to work as a printer's devil, then taught school, became newspaper reporter, was private secretary to a congressman, became editor of two Ohio city newspapers and finally was elected governor. His third term as governor will end in 1921.

SENATOR HARDING CONGRATULATES COX

RECALLS CARTOON WHICH SHOWED THEM CONTENDING FOR WHITE HOUSE DELIVERY

RAYMOND CLAPPER
(Staff Correspondent United Press)
Columbus, Ohio, July 6—Senator Warren G. Harding today telegraphed from Marion a message of congratulation to Governor Cox democratic nominee.

"I recall a cartoon which showed you and I as newspaper boys contending for the White House delivery. It seems to have been prophetic. As an Ohioan and fellow publisher I congratulate you on your noted victory."

Marion, Ohio, July 6—Senator Warren G. Harding today sent a telegram of congratulation to Governor Cox of Ohio, his rival candidate for the presidency.

Harding received news of Cox's nomination before breakfast and immediately sent a wire to Dayton.

He issued a statement again emphasizing that personalities will not be allowed to enter the campaign from his side.

The nomination of Cox, he said, has an added consideration for Ohio and gives reasonable assurance that a newspaper executive is to be the next president.

Both Harding and Cox are newspaper publishers.

Senator Harding's statement was: "Governor Cox's nomination has an added consideration shown to our great state of Ohio for which I am glad, and gives reasonable assurance that finally a newspaper man is to be made the next chief executive. Ohio has accorded Governor Cox very unusual distinction and he deserves his noted victory at San Francisco. His nomination will not change our activities in any way. A great party contest is before us in which great principles are involved, and neither place, residence or personality will have any marked influence on the result."

Washington, July 6—Comptroller of Currency Williams, today asked National banks to make a statement of condition as of June 30.

MRS. C. GREENFIELD

Mrs. Caroline Greenfield, just back from eight months in the Holy Land, where she went as a volunteer worker in the Zionist organization of America, has made some interesting statements about the housing situation in that country. "New Yorkers who think it difficult to find a place to dwell, should go to Palestine and see what real housing problems are like," says Mrs. Greenfield. She suggests large apartment houses and hotels in Jerusalem, Jaffa and Haifa.

McADOO DELIGHTED THAT GOVERNOR COX IS NOMINATED

Huntington, N. Y., July 6—"I am relieved and delighted that the nomination did not come to me," said Wm. G. McAdoo today when informed of the nomination of Governor Cox for the presidency by the democratic national convention.

McAdoo said he would withhold any further comment until the convention completed its work.

Shortly before leaving his summer home here for his office, McAdoo asked the reporter to "say that I am eternally grateful for my friends and their support."

SECOND SESSION OF SPA CONFERENCE

QUESTION OF DISARMAMENT TO OCCUPY ENTIRE SESSION IT IS THOUGHT

Spa, Belgium, July 6—Despite assurances of Konstantin Fehrenbach, German chancellor, that the German delegation was animated by the spirit of good will and had full intentions of meeting the obligations of the peace treaty, there was an undertone of suspicion among the entente representatives as they appeared for the second session of a conference to be opened at 2 p. m. today.

The attitude of the entente was engendered by what they considered the unfortunate political manoeuvre of the Germans in coming here without the German Minister of Defense, Dr. Gressler and General Von Seeckt, chief of the German staff.

The absence of these two men prevented yesterday's meeting from getting anywhere. The Germans refused to discuss any matter before the disposal of the disarmament matter without the presence at the conference of the two Germans.

Chancellor Fehrenbach and the minister of defense were expected to arrive here today before the conference opened. It was believed the entire session would be devoted to the subject of disarmament.

AIRPLANE CRASHES TO EARTH AT SAUK CENTRE

(By United Press)

Little Falls, Minn., July 6—Joe Kellogg of Sauk Centre, was seriously injured and Cyril Stodolka, of Royalton, an aviator, slightly hurt when their airplane crashed down in an 800 foot nose dive at a Sauk Centre picnic yesterday.

Kellogg, a passenger, became excited when Stodolka began descending to land and put his feet on the rudder bar. The plane went into a nose dive and Stodolka lost control of it.

Kellogg's right arm was fractured and several ribs broken and most all of his teeth were knocked out. Stodolka was badly bruised and shaken up and miraculously escaped death.

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS DEVELOP CHAMPION FARMERS

FARGO, N. D.—Wesley Cooper, 15 years old, of Brampton, Sargent county, is champion corn grower of North Dakota, having raised 113.68 bushels on one acre. He is a member of the Boys and Girls Agricultural and Home Economics Clubs movement, in which 4,500 boys and girls of this state were enrolled last year.

Approximately 2,000 of them entered the state contests at the end of the season with crops, live stock and home economics products to the value of more than $77,000, at a net profit of nearly $45,000, and the work required only a small part of their time.

Twelve projects are covered in the annual program, which is under the direction of Miss Louise Fitzgerald, state leader of the movement. She is a graduate of the North Dakota Agricultural College and a former Red Cross worker. The projects are corn, potatoes, gardens, canning, raises, poultry, pig feeding, sow and litter, sheep, bread, sewing and butter.

Fifty bushels of corn per acre is regarded as excellent in the "corn belt" of the United States. Last year the first six winners in the corn project averaged 100.2 bushels per acre. Clarence Knudson, of Manvel, produced a trifle over 61 bushels of corn on one-eighth of an acre, or the rate of 468 bushels per acre. Miss Sigurd Overgaard, of Mott, raised sixty-one pure bred turkeys

WILSON WILL TAKE ACTIVE PART IN THE CAMPAIGN

WILL TAKE STUMP FOR COX IF ABLE AND MAKE SPEECHES IN CAMPAIGN

H. W. WALKER

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Columbus, Ohio July 6—Definite assurances were given at the White House today that President Wilson plans to take an active part in the campaign to elect Governor Cox as his successor. There are indications that if his health permits the President will take the stump and make speeches for the Ohioan, and otherwise use his influence as head of the party to win the democratic victory in November. An early conference between Wilson and Cox probably will be arranged, it was learned.

President Heard News This Morning

Washington, July 6—President Wilson did not receive news of the nomination of Governor Cox until he arose shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.

The attendant was waiting to hand him the United Press report the closing ballots, which with the evening papers he read at the breakfast table.

DELEGATES ANXIOUS LEAVE CONVENTION

WILL NOMINATE VICE PRESIDENT IN A HURRY AND LEAVE FOR HOME

HUGH BAILLIE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
San Francisco, July 6—Delegates to the democratic national convention today opened their last session to nominate a candidate for the vice presidency, passing closing resolutions and adjourn.

The names of E. T. Meredith and Franklin D. Roosevelt were heard most frequently mentioned as a possibility for the honor of sharing a place on the ticket with Governor Cox.

Many of the delegates had started for their homes and their places were filled with alternates. The early crowd in the gallery was smaller than usual as the convention now is only an event in history and there was no prospect of fireworks.

It was getaway day at the convention, to use a turf phrase. A number of delegates had their grips packed and were waiting nearby for the final end. Some were weary and full of yawn as a result of the all day and night session. All were anxious to nominate a vice president and protracted balloting was not looked for.

COX STANDS WELL WITH ORGANIZED LABOR

(By United Press)

Washington, July 6—Governor James M. Cox, democratic presidential nominee, stands highly with organized labor in Ohio, Secretary Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, said today.

Morrison and other labor leaders refused to make any further comment on Cox's nomination until Samuel Gompers reaches Washington from San Francisco.

VAN WALK BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Winston K. VanWalk, Age 16, Was Struck in Left Side by Rifle Bullet Fired by 5 Year Brother

RUSHED TO THE N. P. HOSPITAL

Doctors X-Ray for the Bullet, Injuries are Considered to be Very Serious Ones

Winston K. VanWalk, age 16, was accidentally shot by his five year old brother Jimmie on Monday night at about 8:30 o'clock. The mother, Mrs. E. W. VanWalk, and four children had just come in from South Long lake where she had been visiting with her father, Nalbert LaFond, when Jimmie spied the rifle which Winston received as a present to go deer hunting this fall.

Without a second thought he snapped the trigger and shot Winston in the left side, the bullet just missing the eighteen months' old baby as the latter was crossing the room to the rear.

Alderman J. H. Strickler rushed the boy to the Northern Pacific railway hospital where at a late hour he was X-rayed by Drs. A. W. Ide and J. A. Everl. Dr. D. E. Nelson was the first to reach the wounded boy and give first aid.

FLIGHT WAS FINE LANDING WAS NO

Bo Rappel Skims Through the Air Like a Bird in the Nokay Lake Country Monday

SHIFT OF WIND CATCHES HIM

Hydroplane Tilted Near Island. He Dipped and Went to Bottom of Lake and Rose Again

To have a successful flight above Nokay lake Monday, to master the secrets of the air, and then to have a bad turn of luck when near the surface of the water and go ker-smash to the bottom was the fate of Bo Rappel, amateur aviator who flew with the Rosko hydroplane.

A shift of wind tilted the machine when 60 feet above the water near the island. Rappel skimmed down and planned to rise again. Instead of that the hydroplane got a toe hold on the water and went down to the bottom, some 20 feet, dragging the aviator to the depths. It rebounded to the surface and then collapsed, wings smashed, tail torn to pieces and all that's left is the engine and a bunch of bolts.

Rappel thought his flying and other days were over when he dived for the bottom. Rosko Brothers rowed out and towed him in. Extensive repairs will have to be made to put the machine on a flying basis. In the meantime Rappel will confine his flying to driving a Dodge.

SPOILED FOOD

One of the reasons why food is high is found in a bit of railroad news from a big industrial center. On one of the several railroads entering the city there were standing on a certain day, unopened, 106 cars of perishable fruit and vegetables, including a large proportion of grapefruit, lemons, cherries, strawberries, cucumbers and tomatoes. Two cars of onions had been on the tracks for two weeks, and much of the other stuff had been there for many days, with no indication of how much longer it would have to wait.

Some of the delay was due to slowness on the part of the railroad in shifting the cars to the proper switches. Most of it was the fault of the commission men to whom the goods were consigned.

This evil, always bad, particularly in the big market centers, becomes worse as summer advances, with warmer weather and larger shipments of perishable goods. Last summer the waste from fruits and vegetables rotting in cars was notorious. It will be just as bad this summer unless something is done about it.

The farmers suffer from it, and the public suffers. The commission men generally avoid loss by refusing to pay the producer for the spoiled stuff or raising the price of sound produce enough to make up for the rest. Along this line federal, state and city authorities should be able to accomplish some useful conservation.

TANDEM WANTS

Friend neighbor bought an automobile not long since. Then he had to build a garage to house it. Then he had to have insurance policies to cover both car and garage. This is an illustration of tandem wants. The decoration of one room involves the retouching of others, and a new rug necessitates more of similar quality.

A single want looks innocent enough, when it approaches its victim. It can easily be satisfied. But it has a peculiar and seductive way of bringing along other clamorous allies. It is sometimes felt that happiness will be complete, when one particular desire is met. Of course, today it is expected that this want will cost just a little more than one can afford, but there is no suspicion at the time that it will bring others equally insistent in its train.

One way to escape this bombardment, of course, is to suppress the first want the moment it shows its head. This is the staid way of escape, but it is hardly the way of sound economics. Followed to its logical conclusion, it would mean the triumph of cloth in the industrial and social world. For the multiplication of desires has been synonymous with the growth of civilization. Salvation will hardly come by killing the first want.

The escape lies rather in the rule of reason over desire. Every person can and should subject his desires to critical examination and grade them in the order of their importance to the essential purposes of his life. If there is to be an escape from tandem wants, it will be because each individual masters his desires, regulates and disciplines them so that they minister in the end to the larger values of living. —Minneapolis Journal

The country will have a live wire for president no matter which of the leading candidates win. Harding and Cox are both live newspaper men, and will put pep into the government. There will be no "watchful waiting". Something will be doing all the time.

Woodrow the First, and Crown Prince William, are probably the two most disappointed men in the United States today. The planning of years went glimmering this morning when Governor Cox was nominated.

It's a safe bet that the next president of the United States is an Ohio man. Virginia has lost her monopoly of the presidents to the Buckeye State.

Senator Smith of Georgia wants to cut the President's salary from $75,000 to $50,000 a year. Does he want to divide the balance up among the senators?

Freight is moving again, and it's surprising how much satisfaction can be got out of watching the trains go by.

It's a whole lot harder for the parties to decide what they stand for than what they won't stand for.

Now that we're getting used to the name Czechoslovakia, let Russia go ahead and call itself Bolshevikia.

BRAINERD BRINGS HOME THE BACON

Team Gets Into Its Old Victorious Stride and Cops Little Falls Big Game Monday

THE ATTENDANCE WAS 1469

Morse Pitched Splendid Ball, Faultlessly Supported by Team, Score Was 1 to 0

Braingerd brought home the bacon in the Little Falls-Braingerd series, winning the big attendance game, 1469 present, Monday afternoon at Little Falls by a shut-out score of 1 to 0.

Talk about your thrills! Errorless ball played on both sides, snappy and brilliant fielding, fast plays galore, fine pitching by Irl Morse for Braingerd and by the veteran Patterson for Little Falls. It was a game worth going miles to see. The park was filled and cars were parked along base lines and outside the enclosure.

Braingerd won by getting the jump on Patterson in the first inning, getting a run and three hits. It happened this way. Peterson went out pitcher to first base. Bemis rapped out a two-bagger. On Wines' fielders choice Bemis made third and on Irl Morse's single made home. Cook singled and Larson was put out third to first. That was all the scoring done in the game, but it was enough to shut out Little Falls.

Little Falls must have entertained close to 5,000 visitors and every one knew Braingerd had won and the town and team received a lot of advertising mention.

Directors of the Braingerd team sat in the Braingerd dugout and watched every play with keenest interest. The gaining of the Little Falls series meant much to the team and to Braingerd.

In the seventh inning Braingerd nearly scored again. Irl Morse got a two-bagger, Cook delivered a near sacrifice bunt near the plate and advanced Morse to third. And there he had to put to rest, for Larson went out Patterson to first, and Benda flew out on a long fly to Lennox.

Little Falls' nearest chance to score came in the fifth inning. Bessemer grounded out to Cook. Klein went out second to first. Diedrich and Patterson singled, and perched on bases passed to oblivion when Little Falls whiffed.

Notes of the Game

Little Falls Center Fielder Lennox got everything in his territory, gathering in four long Braingerd flies.

Little Falls' four players. Third Baseman Schultz, Catcher Armstrong, Second Baseman Pete Morse and Shortstop Diedrich each grabbed three assists.

In the third inning Cook speared Diedrich's foul near the line of cars along first.

In the fourth Schultz very handily fouled to Catcher Moore.

Cook accepted 20 chances without a break to mar the string. He nailed every kind of a throw, high, low, from catcher or the field.

In four times up Irl Morse got a single and two two-baggers.

In the seventh inning Catcher Armstrong of Little Falls took umbrage at the rooting of a Braingerd fan and started after him with a baseball bat. Sheriff Felix got a hold of Armstrong and backed him up.

MORNING GAME

Little Falls Got the Opener at Little Falls on July 5 by 3 to 2 Score

Little Falls won the morning opener July 5 at Little Falls from Braingerd by a 3 to 2 score. The attendance was 555, which is very good for the start of a double-header.

Postin pitched for the Little Falls nine fanning 10 and Braingerd had Cave on the mound five innings, fanning 4 and succeeded by I. Morse who fanned 2. The game was played in fast time, 1 hour 18 minutes. With the exception of Cave pitching at the start, the line-up of the teams was the same as the afternoon game, Patterson succeeding Postin for Little Falls.

Little Falls was the first to score, Pete Morse trotting in a run in the fourth. In the sixth Schroeder knocked one over the fence for a circuit of the bases. In the seventh Lennox made first on an error of short, was advanced by Schultz's sacrifice, and scored on Armstrong's single.

In the eighth Braingerd did its only scoring and worked hard to tie the score, but failed. Bemis singled and Wines Babe Ruth clout marked up the "2" tally. Morse and Benda each flew out.

FOUNDRY LABORERS WANT MORE PAY

Men Walked Out on Saturday Night, Demanding a 15c an Hour Increase in Wages

OFFERED 5 CENTS HOUR RAISE

Compromise is Refused by Workers. In Consequence of Walk Out the Molders Work is Retarded

Inside foundry laborers are on strike at the Parker & Topping Co. foundry, 77 walking out Saturday night, according to the statement made by Louis Olson, president of the local International Foundry Employees union.

The union embraces cupola tenders, chippers, casting cleaners, chain gang, etc., and in consequence the work of the molders has come to a stop. The foundry employees want a raise in wages. The old scale was 50 cents an hour and 9 hours work. The men want a 15 cents an hour raise, which would make the wages $5.85 a day. They were offered a compromise in the shape of a 5 cents an hour increase, but refused it.

Frank Mosconi of St. Louis, Mo., a member of the executive board of the International union, is on the ground, the walkout is entirely orderly and without trouble of any kind.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin"

Harriet Ward Beecher Stowe's famous story of slavery before the Civil War is well represented in the dramatization of this well known story "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and as produced by Terry's excellent company. The presentation is an interesting one, and is given in its entirety just as depicted by the author. The company that Terry carries this season is equal to those that are seen in the larger city theatres, he having spared no expense to make the company one of the strongest entourage. The cast is made up of the very best talent. The scenic and electrical effects complete, in fact the show as put on by the Terry company is spoken of by the press and public as a splendid presentation of the national drama.

The musical part of the show this year is to be considered: three bands and orchestras are carried that are the talk of every city visited, being composed of a high class array of solo musicians. The show is advertised to give one performance at Braingerd, July 15.

"T x" Federoff, a hurler from Texsem, 20 nines, has joined the Little Falls team.

The 2 to 2 game between Pequot and the Speedwells at Pequot was characterized by the Pequot Review as the most hotly contested game of the season. "Feature plays galore were witnessed by the fans and both visiting and home fans have nothing but the greatest respect for both teams. Speedy Stallman pitched the entire game for Braingerd while Smoky Johnson did likewise for the home team."

Long Prairie has a baseball team, at last, remarks the Long Prairie Leader when Long Prairie defeated Melrose 2 to 0.

The Keering field has a mower working on it and cutting the hay crop. Continuous dry, hot weather will work wonders in making the field presentable.

Some hundred additional names not listed in the first campaign are being enrolled as financial supporters of the Braingerd baseball team.

Over at Crosby the ball park is a municipal affair, maintained by the city. Here in Braingerd the team has to pay rent at $300 a season. What Braingerd needs is a municipal ball park with grandstand and fenced and located on level, high ground; a park large enough to serve also the smaller teams of Braingerd with tennis courts, shooting range, etc.; where county fairs and expositions could be held; carnivals, circuses, etc., so as to derive some revenue when rented to out of town people.

RAISE FUND TO DEFEND UNIONS

Labor Leaders Claim Employers Lay Plans to Smash Organizations.

SEE MOVE FOR OPEN SHOP

International Association of Machinists Will Collect $4,200,000 to Finance Struggle—Union Men Are Warned to Stay Away From Colorado.

Union labor is raising a gigantic fund to fight what it says is a nationwide campaign by big employers to smash the trade unions.

The International Association of Machinists is raising $4,200,000 a year by assessing each of its 350,000 members $1 a month. Other international organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor are said to be levying like amounts.

Reports received at headquarters of the machinists and other unions show chambers of commerce and similar business men's organizations in industrial centers are working to spread "open shop" propaganda and to force a "lockout" of union men.

They are also, it is said, banded to fight collective bargaining.

Labor leaders say it is the beginning of a "life-and-death" struggle for the unions.

"We have evidence of a well-laid conspiracy among certain big employers to return to pre-war conditions in dealing with labor and by every means in their power to crush the unions," E. C. Davidson, general secretary treasurer of the International Association of Machinists, said.

"The real purpose of the 'open shop' campaign is to put the unions out of business, reduce wages and take away the eight-hour day."

In cities where the antiunion employers dominate and are looking out for union men, organized labor is retaliating by boycotting those places and using every legitimate means to keep labor away.

The Colorado State Federation of Labor has issued warning to union men throughout the country to stay away from Colorado, where it is claimed commercial organizations are working to enforce the "open shop" and bar union men.

French Brain Workers in Union.

The Brain Workers' Union, which was founded in France a few months ago, has already reached a membership of over 200,000, artists, journalists, clerks of all grades and trades, school teachers and scientists, individually and as corporations having claimed for inclusion. The program that is being prepared includes claims for:

Minimum salaries, according to the needs in each profession. Obligatory contracts, suited to each profession. Pensions after twenty-five years' service in one house or institution if the members are over fifty-five years of age. A minimum indemnity in case of dismissal. Payment for all work accepted whether used or not. Professional priority in engagement.

In all its actions and aspirations the union promises moderation and professes antagonism to no other body in civic life. But its promoters and members feel that in past years and at present their interests have been constantly ground between the upper and nether millstones of capitalism and material labor, and that it is time they took joint action on their own behalf.

COX NOMINATION MAKES DRY TICKET SURE

(By United Press)

Chicago, July 7.—The nomination of Gov. Cox as democratic presidential nominee makes certain the placing of an avowed dry ticket in the field, according to a statement here today by Virgil G. Hinshaw, national chairman of the prohibition party national committee.

McADOO WIRES COX HIS SUPPORT

New York, July 6.—McAdoo today wired Governor Cox:

"I heartily congratulate you and assure you my cordial support."

ORGANIZE TO FIGHT TIEUP

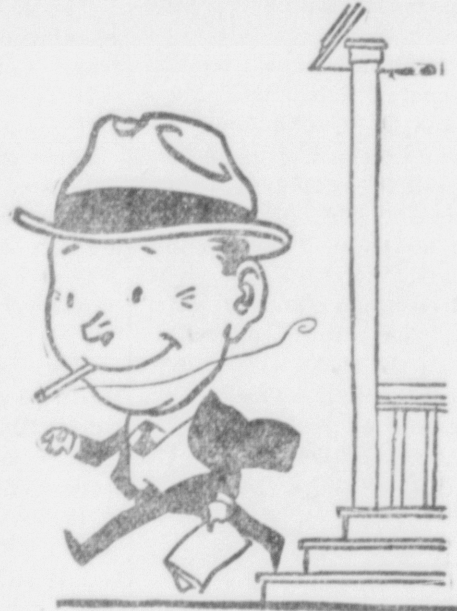

Committee of New York Employers Accumulate Large "War Chest" for Use If Necessary.

Accumulation of a $5,000,000 "war chest" as a retaliatory weapon instantly available when labor chokes New York's freight arteries, was determined upon by the citizens' transportation committee, which formed itself into a permanent organization to represent the combined commercial interests of the city in their relations, peaceful or otherwise, with organized labor.

The call for the big emergency fund was looked on as the answer of commercial interests to the striking longshoremen's delay in voting on Governor Smith's offer for personal mediation with the interstate commerce commission in the hope of ending the freight paralysis in the port by obtaining a rate increase for the coastwise steamship lines.

Observatories. The northern hemisphere has more than 200 public astronomical observatories to less than 20 in the southern.

ALLEN PLEADS FOR INDUSTRIAL COURT.

Establishment of a federal court of industrial relations, patterned after the Kansas plan, was recommended to the senate committee on education and labor by Gov. Henry J. Allen.

Governor Allen said that he would establish an industrial court in Washington inferior only to the Supreme court of the United States and would make decisions of this industrial court subject to appeal to the Supreme court. Regional industrial courts could be established in other parts of the United States where found necessary, he said. The court would not be founded to interfere with business or to fix prices or to establish wages, but would be established for the primary purpose of adjusting such industrial disputes as might seem likely to affect the general public adversely, and the process of fixing wages would be only an incidental part of the court's duties.

Labor Needs a "General Staff."

Ernest Bevin, known as "The Dock," speaking at a social gathering of the Hermes club at Westminster, England, advocated the proposed formation of a "general staff" for labor, and said that the creation of such a thinking machine would lead to confidence among the working people as to the competence of labor to take up the reins of government. Mr. Bevin did not say labor could not find men who were able to govern, but labor was not finding the machinery of government to take the place of the present machinery.
